

Contents

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| Editor's Note | Michael S. Sparer | 647 |
| The Form and Context of Federalism: Meanings for Health Care Financing | George France | 649 |
| Health Economists' Views of Health Policy | Michael A. Morrissey and John Cawley | 707 |
| Administrative Compensation of Medical Injuries: A Hardy Perennial Blooms Again | Paul J. Barringer, David M. Studdert, Allen B. Kachalia, and Michelle M. Mello | 725 |
| Administrative "Health Courts" for Medical Injury Claims: The Federal Constitutional Issues | E. Donald Elliott, Sanjay A. Narayan, and Moneen S. Nasmith | 761 |
| Federal Administrative Health Courts Are Unconstitutional: A Reply to Elliott, Narayan, and Nasmith | Amy Widman and Francine A. Hochberg | 799 |
| Letter to the Editor | | |
| Comment on Marie Gottschalk's "Back to the Future? Health Benefits, Organized Labor, and Universal Health Care" | Leonard Robins | 833 |

iv Contents

Books

Inclusion: The Politics of Difference in Medical Research,
by Steven Epstein (Andrew M. Fearnley—Review) 835

Universal Health Insurance in France. How Sustainable?
edited by Victor G. Rodwin (Chris Ham—Review) 841

Health Care at Risk: A Critique of the Consumer-Driven Movement, by Timothy Stoltzfus Jost (Mark A. Hall—Review) 845

Books Received 849

Contributors 855